Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the badge of HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, diarrhoea, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of women's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription": it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a second opinion as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

Remedy CATARRH
Ely's Cream Balm is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Smell and Taste and cures all eye troubles. In liquid form, 75 cents. The Balm, 50 cents. 50 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drug act June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1608.

HIBERNIANS EXCLUDED.

Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in Philadelphia were greatly stirred up yesterday by the refusal of Rev. D. I. McDermott, rector of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, in that city, to permit funeral services to be held in his church over the remains of John Daly, a parishioner, because a Hibernian lodge had been invited to attend.

The funeral was to have been held Monday, but because of Father McDermott's opposition to the Hibernians, it had to be postponed. He, however, agreed to permit the funeral to take place from St. Mary's, but only on condition that the invitation to the Hibernians be revoked. The widow of Daly agreed, and in the funeral notice printed yesterday it was announced that the "invitation to the Ancient Order of Hibernians to attend the funeral is hereby revoked." The funeral was held without the Hibernians.

Father McDermott, in explanation of his opposition to the society, said he formed an opinion of the Hibernians during the Molly Maguire reign of terror in the Pennsylvania coal regions which forbids him to condone in any way the existence of the order.

Father McDermott acted as spiritual adviser to some of the Molly Maguires who were hanged as murderers.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Safe Medicine for Children.

In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

COSTLY DEBUT.

With free song birds fluttering about in the foliage and gold fish in the fountain, all ready to be hooked by fair women, Miss Dorothy Randolph made her debut last night at a ball given at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia, by her father, Philip S. P. Randolph, who owns most of Narragansett Pier and much of Littlewood.

As to the cost of the affair, conservative estimates place it away above anything that has gone before, even exceeding the famous butterfly ball of Miss Paul by about $50,000.

The scene of Miss Randolph's formal introduction to society was a woodland, with rustic bridges over real pools and imitation ones made with mirrors, surrounded by plants and flowers. Fountains were flowing, canaries warbling in the foliage, and all kinds of rare fish swam in the ponds and streams.

Twelve hundred guests were unanimous in the opinion that it was all exquisite. Departing from precedent, the birds were carefully handled and none was hurt. Even the goldfish that were hooked were thrown back into the water.

Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills They promptly relieve backache and weak back. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

TRAIN WRECKED.

The second section of what is known as the Coliver special, running from Cleveland, Ohio, to St. Augustine, Fla., was wrecked yesterday afternoon between Dallas and Hiram, Ga., on the Southern Railway, on a trestle twenty-five feet over the nearly dry bed of Copper Mine creek. Five of the seven cars went into the mud, and more than two score passengers, most of them residents of Ohio, were injured.

The only seriously hurt are Engineer Edwards, who was caught beneath the cab of his engine when it overturned, after clearing the trestle; Road Foreman of Engines Snapp, and the colored fireman, Edwards and his fireman probably will die. Snapp will recover.

The injuries to the passengers consist chiefly of broken limbs and bruises.

Kodol is the best remedy known today for dyspepsia, indigestion and all troubles arising from a disordered stomach. It is pleasant, prompt and thorough. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

SEW HEART BETWEEN BEATS.

Stitching between beats of his heart, two doctors of the Youngstown, O., City Hospital staff on Monday sewed up Tony Toplet, stabbed four times in the night fight early in the morning, one wound being through the lung and slicing the pericardium. The surgeons decided on the unusual operation as the only chance to save his life. They laid bare the pericardium by cutting four ribs from the breast bone and turning them back. Then they put seven stitches in its covering. Toplet's assailant is in jail awaiting the outcome of the operation.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills known. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powder and snuff, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm relieves the secretion that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely's Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.
